

The Thatched Cottage

The Thatched Cottage is located in Ballycommon, Nenagh, Co. Tipperary, five minutes from Nenagh en route to Dromineer.

It is located in a restored Thatched Building at the heart of Old Tipperary dating back to the 1800s.

The structure has been preserved and the outside stonework and other elements have been restored to its original state. We are the ideal venue for corporate lunches, a savoury afternoon break or a successful party.

Today the tradition is being nurtured and enhanced by the proprietors Kathleen & Tony Donlan. The Thatched Cottage delivers several areas of fabulous cuisine catering for everyone's needs at all times of the day.
